About my PhD Research

I wear a few different hats and am an artist, human rights-awarded autobiographer & writer, public speaker/recovery expert, and PhD in arts based research and narrative inquiry.

I provide services to clients on the NDIS, and it is my privilege to offer therapeutic support via my unique arts-life-coaching for marginalized people with mental health & other issues in Melbourne.

If you're looking for help for yourself or someone you know who is on the NDIS to get a 'leg up' with a good dose of light-hearted humor and lived experience with secular ethics that hold kindness in the greatest regard—you just found him!

Welcome to Tuesday - Acoustic 3 piece (2002)

As well as making art all these years, I have made and performed music too as a vocalist and guitarist in various outfits and on my own.

I think there is an interesting intersection between the visual creativity of my life and how that manifested in sound. There are three albums, three EPs and a single track here.

Music has always been a massive part of my life and I have dabbled in making it, with my brother Brad in 'Welcome to Tuesday', and Kirbs and Sean Belfield in the band 'Less'.

We used to play around Melbourne and Canberra too, in places such as the Nicholson, Joeys, The Punters Club, The Espy, The Armadale and lots of other bars and clubs.

I've uploaded my catalogues here for you to hear for free. If you purchase the album it helps support independent artists. Have a listen, you may be pleasantly surprised! Or, you may hate it, stiff shit! Haha!

Just a warning that the band 'Less' gets more post-grunge as time goes backwards below!

Rock on! ...those were good times.

PS Don't watch 'Australian IDLE' - go see a real band and support independent music and artists locally.

'Brauvura' (1991)

My first band - before I came out - (I was a very naive nineteen-year-old!)
