Dear Mr McLean

I did not receive contact from you in relation to my below email on 6 November 2020 (minus attachments).

As you have not contacted the Commission, it is unclear that you wish to continue with your complaint.

Please contact me by 27 November 2020 if you want to continue with your complaint.

If I do not hear from you by 27 November 2020, the President's Delegate may decide to close your complaint on the basis that she is satisfied you do not want to continue with the complaint. If your complaint is closed on this basis, you will not be able to make an application to have the allegations decided by the court.

You can contact me on the numbers and email address below.

If calling, please note on Mondays and Thursdays, I am not available post 1 pm AEDT.

I look forward to your contact.

Kind regards

Vanessa Crawford

Subject: 2020-09751 Pre-notification [SEC=OFFICIAL:Sensitive]

Dear Mr McLean

The Australian Human Rights Commission (Commission) is now preparing to notify Australian Super of your complaint and to seek its response.

I am contacting you to confirm that relevant information/documents from our file can be released by the Commission to Australian Super as part of the President's Delegate's inquiry into your complaint.

I am sorry for the delay, which has been due to resource constraints.

Please now find attached to this email the complaint and supporting information/documents (noting the attachments containing medical reports are password protected). Please let me know if you require any of this information, including your contact details, to be redacted or if you consent to the documents being released to Australian Super as attached.

The final document I attach is a copy of the outcomes that you advise my colleague, Rebecca, that you were seeking. Please let me know if these are still the outcomes you are seeking, or if there are any changes. Please also let me know whether you want Australian Super to be provided with a copy of your outcomes at this stage.

I am available to discuss by phone next week or please email me if that is more convenient.

nient for you.

I look forward to your contact.

I hope you have a good weekend.

Kind regards

Vanessa Crawford
