Dear Mr Dodger

Your complaint about NSW Trustee and Guardian

Thank you for your complaint received on 7 April 2026, in which you raise concerns about NSW Trustee and Guardian (NSWTG). I note that you have also made a formal complaint to NSWTG; I acknowledge that this is the correct course of action.

We will not act on a complaint that another agency is dealing with

The correspondence you supplied shows that NSWTG is still considering the matter. We will not become involved in a matter that an agency is actively investigating, even if that investigation is not proceeding as you would like. We can only act if there is information to suggest that NSWTG's conduct was unlawful or objectively unreasonable.

As there does not appear to be information to suggest NSWTG's conduct was unlawful or objectively unreasonable, I will not act on your complaint at this stage.

You can contact us again if NSWTG's response is inadequate

You can write to us if you:

- * are not satisfied with the NSWTG's response when you receive it, and
- * believe there is information to suggest that NSWTG's conduct was unlawful or objectively unreasonable.

To help us assess your complaint, please include:

- * a copy of the full response from NSWTG and any other agency that looked at it;
- * reasons why you think their response was inadequate and the outcome you are seeking; and
- * all the relevant information you have.

If you have a great deal of information, please give us a short summary and an index. This will help us consider the matter.

It is also worth noting that we do not usually respond to correspondence that is primarily addressed to another agency, please refrain from including us into your emails when dealing with agencies. Such correspondence will be added to your file without a response.

However, after you have received the final response from NSW TG, if you remain unhappy, it will be open for you to contact us again.

Please phone me on 02 9286 1000 (or 1800 451 524 if outside Sydney metro) if you have any questions about this letter.

Yours sincerely
