Legal Brief — cumulative 35-year record

Dr Richard William McLean / Barran Dodger. Reconstructed from the public GitHub corpora and the published autobiographical line. Updated 24 September 2026.

How to read this page. This is a cumulative finding aid. It follows the author's published life-story and the increasing density of agency letters, refusals and compilations over more than three decades. It does not convert allegation into fact. Inclusion of a person or agency does not establish liability. A GitHub URL proves the file is publicly hosted; it does not prove every sentence inside the file. Labels used below: independently reported publication, agency correspondence, author compilation, author allegation / testimony.

Cumulative reconstruction — autobiography into the documentary pile

The public identity begins, independently of this archive, as a published author. Allen & Unwin issued Recovered, Not Cured: A Journey Through Schizophrenia by Richard McLean in 2003. Contemporary press identified him as artist, author and illustrator. That book is the first long-form autobiographical record: childhood, psychiatry, art, and the author's own account of being disbelieved. Later archive material treats that early book not as an ending but as the first layer of a record that then thickens into employment claims (public hospital / DSS), media work and alleged unlawful termination by The Age, alleged vilification by the Herald Sun, family-violence and partner allegations, NDIS participant status, rejected Public Interest Disclosures, homelessness described by the author as internal exile, and a late-period forensic compilation of hundreds of PDFs.

Read in order, the corpus does not stay in one register. Early material is literary and clinical autobiography. Mid-period material is workplace, media and compensation paper. Late-period material is NDIS, PID, ministerial correspondence, police-statement drafting, international filing claims, and the author's theological / prophetic writings. The legal brief has to hold all of those registers without collapsing them into one finding.

1. First published self-account (c. 2003). Independently reported book and press identity. Later archive pages treat this as the start of a 35-year line. Site biography and books section on index.html.
2. Childhood sexual abuse and early targeting — author testimony. Listed in the Crimes catalogue and in later affidavits. Status: author allegation. Cross-read with the Crimes tab and affidavit index on index.html.
3. Psychiatric hospitalisation, forced medication, Mental Health Act threats — author testimony. The author describes hospital settings as sites of further harm and later as political-prisoner treatment. Status: author allegation. Compilation: RETROSPECTIVE_STATEMENT_OF_TREATMENT.pdf.
4. Employment in public systems — author account used to support PID standing. The source brief says Federal Court material confirms DSS employment and public-hospital work, and that PIDs were dismissed because he was said not to be a public official. Status: standing dispute. See PIDs tab and government-documents.zip.
5. Media work, alleged unlawful termination, alleged vilification. Author account: terminated by The Age; vilified by the Herald Sun. Status: author allegation. Trace via media / publications lists in barran-dodger-archive and the compiled book The_Documents_Australia_Doesn_t_Want_You_to_See_Barran_Dodger.pdf.
6. Compensation pathways (WorkCover / Comcare / AAT / Federal Court). Author account: court acknowledgment without payment. Status: author allegation pending inspection of the specific orders in the zip and government-evidence folder.

government-evidence.

7. Family, partner and financial-control allegations. Police-statement material names Sukhi Tear (NDIS support coordination), Philip Glass (NSW Trustee & Guardian context as described by the author), and Stefan / Steve Iasonidis. Status: names in author complaint; not findings. Statement to Police tab on index.html.
8. NDIS participant era — providers, rent, alleged bondage to the scheme. Author account of Aligned Community Care rent extraction, Upscale Care / AblePoint conflicts, inability to sever the contract. Agency-adjacent pack: coag-ndis-government-documentation.pdf.
9. Whistleblower paper to the centre of government. Hosted letters: 31-05-2022 letter to PM Albanese; 1 July 2023 letter to Attorney-General and Prime Minister. These show address and date. They do not show a merits decision.
10. AHRC and “gangstalking” file. ahrc-gangstalking-acknowledgment-04072023.pdf — inspect whether the PDF is acknowledgment, rejection, or something else. The filename is not the holding.
11. Closed-door stack after 2021–2026. Author account of Ombudsman refusing further correspondence, NACC declining identified corruption, AFCA ban, ATO $80,000 bill while not working, HCF income-protection refusal, Legal Aid refusal / guardianship advice, police inability to take the crime list. Compilations that collect those claims: comprehensive-case-systematic-persecution.pdf; architecture-of-administrative-annihilation.pdf; government-mandates-35-year-forensic-report.pdf.
12. Covert surveillance, alleged V2K / audio harassment, electronic interception. The author describes unconsented observation, sound-emitting harassment, phone/TV audio interception, and “gangstalking” as a coordinated campaign that damages credibility when reported. Status: author allegation / testimony. It is recorded because it is persistent across the police statement, the AHRC filename, the Crimes list, and the original legal brief. It is not independently instrumented on this page. Evidence routes: Statement to Police tab; AHRC PDF above; Crimes tab headings on surveillance, stalking, sound-emitting device, hacking, invasion of privacy.
13. Spiritual warfare, prophetic papers, gospels, “Witness Remains” theology. Late-period writings interpret the same 35-year line as cosmic / biblical forsaking and as vocation. Status: author religious and literary work, not a court fact. Hosted: prophetic zip on releases; Gospels / Prophecy / Doctrine tabs on index.html; video exhibit embedded on the home page.

14. Exile, homelessness, subsistence arithmetic. Author account of being driven out of home, NDIS-tied housing, bankruptcy, $40/week after rent. Economic compilations: forensic-economic-valuation-report-may-2026.pdf; taxpayer-cost-estimation-35-years.pdf.
15. Internationalisation of the file. Release notes claim OHCHR UR/UST/23/AUS/17 and ICC / UN use of the corpus. Status: project claim on GitHub. zip-archives-2026-08-17.

Paragraph of significance — read this before the itemised list

The significance of this corpus is cumulative, not cinematic. A 2003 autobiography already placed childhood, psychiatry and disbelief on a public shelf. Over the following decades the same person kept writing to institutions that exist precisely to receive such writing: human-rights commissions, disability insurers and providers, legal aid, ombudsmen, police, courts, ministers. What a third party can verify without believing every allegation is the shape of the paper trail: letters went in; many pathways closed, referred sideways, or answered in a different frame (welfare check, guardianship advice, “not a public official,” no further correspondence).

Legal Aid is the sharpest example of purpose-versus-outcome. The scheme’s public reason for existing is that people who cannot buy a lawyer, especially people with disability and people at risk of harm, still reach law. The inspectable Legal Aid NSW file on GitHub is a guardianship-advice letter, not a published merits opinion on the human-rights, NDIS-provider, PID and police-access complaints. If those subject-matters sit inside Legal Aid’s own priority language, then blocking or diverting the complainant is not a small administrative event. It is a breach of the reason the institution gives for its own existence — or at least a question that the institution has not publicly answered on the merits. The same logic scales: an AHRC file titled as gangstalking acknowledgment, PM and AG letters, and a drafted police report that the author says could not be lodged as a crime list, together form a record of unassessed volume.

Covert surveillance, alleged V2K / electronic harassment, and spiritual warfare sit in a different column. They are central to how the author experiences and narrates the 35 years.

They are not laboratory-confirmed on this page. Their documentary significance is that they were reported into the same closed doors, and that the reporting itself was then used — on the author's account — to reframe him as delusional rather than as a complainant. Whether that reframing was clinical judgment or institutional convenience is exactly the kind of question a merits process would have to confront, and that Legal Aid, police and AHRC were asked to confront.

None of that paragraph finds a crime. It states why the pile matters: autobiography plus increasing institutional paper plus refused merits assessment. If the institutions did assess the file properly, they can publish the assessment. If they did not, the closed-door pattern is the live legal issue.

Fully itemised legal issues — each with a public evidence route

1. Access to justice / Legal Aid purpose. Issue: whether Legal Aid assessed the underlying claims or diverted them. Evidence: 20260114-legal-aid-nsw-advice-letter-guardianship.pdf; Legal Aid tab on index; FormalStatement pages in barran-dodger-archive.

Legal principles for framing only

1. Australian Human Rights Commission Act 1986 — complaint machinery, not a verdict engine.
2. Disability Discrimination Act 1992 (Cth).
3. NDIS Act 2013 and provider practice standards / Code of Conduct.
4. Public interest disclosure statutes — standing and substance.
5. Crimes Act 1914 (Cth) s 142.2 and Crimes Act 1900 (NSW) s 192E — cited by the author; citation is not proof.
6. Legal Aid commission legislation and published priority guidelines — purpose versus recorded outcome.

7. Privacy and surveillance law — relevant to the covert-surveillance / interception allegations if a competent investigator ever tests them.

What this brief does not do

- It does not find murder, conspiracy, V2K as a proven technology, or any named person's guilt.
- It does not treat git history or blockchain claims as proof of file bytes. See verification.html.
- It does not replace a lawyer.

If a statement is wrong, identify the document that proves it. If the 35-year file was properly assessed, publish the assessment. If it was not, the closed door is the issue that remains live.
