Financial Table

Afterpay BNPL Credit Limit	$200.00 being the maximum amount of credit that may be provided under the Credit Contract.
Repayments	You must repay the value of each Order in accordance with your Payment Schedule for the Order. The repayments under this Credit Contract will comprise the last 3 repayments shown in your Payment Schedule unless you have access to the No Payment Upfront Feature and it is active, in which case it will comprise of the 4 repayments shown in your Payment Schedule. The amount of each repayment for an Order is calculated by dividing the value of the Order (less the First Instalment) by 3 (subject to rounding) unless you have access to the No Payment Upfront Feature and it is active, in which case the amount of each repayment for an Order is calculated by dividing the value of the Order by 4 (subject to rounding). If you have access to the No Payment Upfront Feature and it is active, you will have 4 repayments with the First Instalment for an eligible Order due on the Preferred Payment Day that falls a minimum of 8 days and a maximum of 14 days after the date of your Order and each remaining repayment due fortnightly thereafter, or as otherwise set out in your Payment Schedule. If you do not have access to the No Payment Upfront Feature, you will have 3 repayments (after the First Instalment which does not form part of the credit), with the first repayment due on the next Preferred Payment Day at least 2 weeks after the date of your Order and each remaining repayment will be due fortnightly thereafter, or as otherwise set out in your Payment Schedule.
Interest	No interest is payable under the Credit Contract.

Credit fees and charges	Late Fees 1. Subject to paragraph (2) below, if you fail to pay any amount (in whole or in part) specified in your Payment Schedule by the Due Date, a Late Fee will apply and is payable by you on the day immediately following the Due Date. The amount of the Late Fee is calculated as set out in Table 1 below and is subject to the Maximum Late Fee Cap in Table 2. Table 1 <table><tr><th>Original Order Value</th><th>Applicable Late Fee</th></tr><tr><td>$40 or below</td><td> - One late fee of 25% of the Original Order Value when you first fail to make a payment in accordance with your Payment Schedule. </td></tr><tr><td>Above $40</td><td> - For each Order, the aggregate sum of late fees will be capped at the lower of 25% of the Original Order Value or $68. - Up to this maximum cap, for each late payment we will charge: - an initial $10 late fee when you fail to make a payment in accordance with your Payment Schedule, plus - a further $7 late fee if the late payment remains unpaid 7 days after your payment was due. - To remain within this maximum cap and the Maximum Late Fee Cap, we may charge partial amounts of the initial $10 late fee and the subsequent $7 late fee. </td></tr></table> 2. We will not charge you a Late Fee if the sum of all Late Fees payable under the Credit Contract and each other Low Cost Credit Contract between Afterpay and you would exceed the Maximum Late Fee Cap in Table 2. Table 2 <table><tr><th>Maximum Late Fee Cap means:</th></tr><tr><td> (a) for the period of 12 months from the date you accepted this Credit Contract (First Fee Period) - $320; and (b) for each subsequent 12 month period after the end of the First Fee Period - $245. </td></tr></table> Other fees or charges Nil	Original Order Value	Applicable Late Fee	$40 or below	One late fee of 25% of the Original Order Value when you first fail to make a payment in accordance with your Payment Schedule. Credit Provider	Afterpay Australia Pty Ltd ABN 15 169 342 947, Australian Credit Licence 527911
-----------------	---

Afterpay has made an election under section 133BXA(1) of the National Consumer Credit Protection Act 2010 (Cth) (NCCP Act) that covers this Credit Contract and the election is in force. Afterpay is subject to modified responsible lending obligations under the NCCP Act and is required to take appropriate and proportionate steps to assess the suitability of lending, including before we enter a credit contract or increase a credit limit.

Note: Any capitalised terms used in the Schedule (including the Offer and Acceptance) are as defined in the General Terms.

The Credit Contract is made up of this Schedule, the General Terms and the Specific Terms (if any Specific Terms are stated to apply).

This Schedule is the pre-contractual disclosure statement required by the National Credit Code.

Information statement

Things you should know about your proposed credit contract

This statement tells you about some of the rights and obligations of yourself and your credit provider. It does not state the terms and conditions of your contract.

If you have any concerns about your contract, contact the credit provider and, if you still have concerns, the AFCA scheme, or get legal advice.

The contract

1. How can I get details of my proposed credit contract?

Your credit provider must give you a precontractual statement containing certain information about your contract. The precontractual statement, and this document, must be given to you before-

- your contract is entered into; or
- you make an offer to enter into the contract;

whichever happens first.

2. How can I get a copy of the final contract?

If the contract document is to be signed by you and returned to your credit provider, you must be given a copy to keep. Also, the credit provider must give you a copy of the final contract within 14 days after it is made. This rule does not, however, apply if the credit provider has previously given you a copy of the contract document to keep.

If you want another copy of your contract, write to your credit provider and ask for one. Your credit provider may charge you a fee. Your credit provider has to give you a copy-

- within 14 days of your written request if the original contract came into existence 1 year or less before your request; or
- otherwise within 30 days of your written request.

3. Can I terminate the contract?

Yes. You can terminate the contract by writing to the credit provider so long as-

- you have not obtained any credit under the contract; or
- a card or other means of obtaining credit given to you by your credit provider has not been used to acquire goods or services for which credit is to be provided under the contract.

However, you will still have to pay any fees or charges incurred before you terminated the contract.

4. Can I pay my credit contract out early?

Yes. Pay your credit provider the amount required to pay out your credit contract on the day you wish to end your contract.

5. Can my contract be changed by my credit provider?

Yes, but only if your contract says so.

6. Will I be told in advance if my credit provider is going to make a change in the contract?

That depends on the type of change. For example-

- you get notified before or when we provide you with your next account statement for a change that reduces your obligations (or extends the time you have for any repayments owing to us under a Payment Schedule).
- you get at least 20 days advance written notice for-
 - a change in credit fees and charges; or
 - any other changes by your credit provider;

except where the change reduces what you have to pay or the change happens automatically under the contract.

7. Is there anything I can do if I think that my contract is unjust?

Yes. You should first talk to your credit provider. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement.

If that is not successful, you may contact the AFCA scheme. The AFCA scheme is a free service established to provide you with an independent mechanism to resolve specific complaints. The AFCA scheme can be contacted on 1800 931 678, at www.afca.org.au or via mail to Australian Financial Complaints Authority Limited, GPO Box 3, Melbourne, VIC 3001.

Alternatively, you can go to court. You may wish to get legal advice, for example from your community legal centre or Legal Aid.

You can also contact ASIC, the regulator, for information on 1300 300 630 or through ASIC's website at <http://www.asic.gov.au>.

General

8. What do I do if I can not make a repayment?

Get in touch with your credit provider immediately. Discuss the matter and see if you can come to some arrangement. You can ask your credit provider to change your contract in a number of ways-

- to extend the term of your contract and reduce payments; or
- to extend the term of your contract and delay payments for a set time; or
- to delay payments for a set time.

9. What if my credit provider and I can not agree on a suitable arrangement?

If the credit provider refuses your request to change the repayments, you can ask the credit provider to review this decision if you think it is wrong.

If the credit provider still refuses your request you can complain to the AFCA scheme. Further details about this scheme are set out below in question 25.

10. Can my credit provider take action against me?

Yes, if you are in default under your contract. But the law says that you can not be unduly harassed or threatened for repayments. If you think you are being unduly harassed or threatened, contact the AFCA scheme or ASIC, or get legal advice.

11. Do I have any other rights and obligations?

Yes. The law will give you other rights and obligations. You should also READ YOUR CONTRACT carefully.

IF YOU HAVE ANY COMPLAINTS ABOUT YOUR CREDIT CONTRACT, OR WANT MORE INFORMATION, CONTACT YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER. YOU MUST ATTEMPT TO RESOLVE YOUR COMPLAINT WITH YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER BEFORE CONTACTING THE AFCA SCHEME. IF YOU HAVE A COMPLAINT WHICH REMAINS UNRESOLVED AFTER SPEAKING TO YOUR CREDIT PROVIDER YOU CAN CONTACT THE AFCA SCHEME OR GET LEGAL ADVICE.

THE AFCA SCHEME IS A FREE SERVICE ESTABLISHED TO PROVIDE YOU WITH AN INDEPENDENT MECHANISM TO RESOLVE SPECIFIC COMPLAINTS. THE AFCA SCHEME CAN BE CONTACTED ON 1800 931 678, AT WWW.AFCA.ORG.AU, OR VIA MAIL TO AUSTRALIAN FINANCIAL COMPLAINTS AUTHORITY LIMITED, GPO BOX 3, MELBOURNE, VIC 3001.

PLEASE KEEP THIS INFORMATION STATEMENT. YOU MAY WANT SOME INFORMATION FROM IT AT A LATER DATE.

Information about Afterpay's responsible lending obligations

Unsuitability assessment

As the credit provider, the law prohibits us from:

- entering into a credit contract, or
- increasing the credit limit of a credit contract,

with you, if we assess it to be unsuitable for you.

When we make this assessment, we are required to:

- make reasonable inquiries about your requirements and objectives;
- make reasonable inquiries about your financial situation; and
- take reasonable steps to verify your financial situation.

A credit contract or a credit limit increase will be unsuitable if:

- it's likely that you will be unable to comply with your financial obligations under the contract (make the repayments) or could only comply with substantial hardship; or
- it doesn't meet your stated requirements or objectives.

You can ask us for a copy of your assessment

You can ask us for a copy of your assessment (at no cost to you) if we approve you for the credit or a credit limit increase. Contact us via in-app messaging and we'll get your assessment to you:

When you ask us for your assessment	When we'll get it to you
Before entering into the credit contract or obtaining a credit limit increase	As soon as possible

Up to 2 years after entering into the credit contract or obtaining a credit limit increase	Within 7 business days after we get your request
Between 2 years and 7 years after entering into the credit contract or obtaining a credit limit increase	Within 21 business days after we get your request

We're not required to give you a copy of your assessment if the credit contract is not entered or the credit limit is not increased.

Complaints

We are committed to dealing with customer complaints fairly and resolving issues efficiently. If you wish to raise a complaint, you can do so by contacting us via the Help icon in the My Afterpay tab in our App, or on our Website at help.afterpay.com.

If you make a complaint, it will be managed through our internal dispute resolution process, as follows:

- We will acknowledge your complaint promptly, either verbally or in writing, and do our best to resolve it straight away.
- If we can't resolve your complaint within 5 business days, we'll provide you with a written response informing you of the final outcome.
- We aim to resolve all complaints within 21 days. However in some cases it may take up to 30 days.
- Your complaint may take a little longer to assess if we need more information or if your complaint is complex.
- In all cases, we'll keep you updated on the progress of your complaint.

If you are not satisfied with the outcome of your complaint after it has been through our internal dispute resolution process, you can raise the matter with our external dispute resolution provider, the Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA) using the contact details listed below.
